

these Rules for binding himself/ herself to serve under the Government of Assam for a period of 5 years in any institute offered by the Govt. or 1 year Rural Service on completion of the MBBS Course and in breach thereof to pay a sum of Rs.30,00,000/- (Rupees thirty lakhs) only to the Government as compensation.

- (b) All candidates selected for admission into BDS course shall enter into an agreement in a non-judicial stamp paper of Rs.100/- (Rupees one hundred) only with the Government of Assam as in Schedule – II – B appended to these rules for binding himself/herself to serve under the Government of Assam for a period of 5 years in any institute offered by the Govt. or 1 year Rural Service on completion of the BDS course and in breach thereof to pay a sum of Rs.20,00,000/- (Rupees twenty lakhs) only to the Government as compensation.

16. Refund of paid fees.

The amount of fees paid by the candidate at the time of admission shall be refunded after deduction of 10% of the total amount of paid fees if the candidate surrenders his/her seat before the last date of admission as fixed by MCI/DGHS.

17. Anti Ragging Measures.

In pursuance to the Judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated: 08/05/2009 in Civil Appeal No.887/2009, the Medical Council of India has framed the "Medical Council of India (Prevention and Prohibition of Ragging in Medical College/Colleges/Institutions) Regulations, 2009" which have been notified on 3rd August,2009 by which ragging is prohibited by Law in all its forms, from Medical Colleges/ Institutions in the Country. Preventing its occurrence by following the provision of this Regulation and punishing those who indulge in ragging, as provided for in this regulations and the appropriate law in force, the Medical Council of India has made it mandatory for all students/ parents to submit anti-ragging related affidavits to the institutions at the time of Admission (details can be downloaded from the web site of MCI).

18. Interpretation of any clause of these rules.

In case of any doubt regarding interpretation of any clause of these rules during the counselling period then the decision of the Selection Board regarding the interpretation of that particular clause shall be final.

19. Power to relax.—

Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do so, it may by order, not inconsistent with the provisions of these rules and for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules.